

Report from KADH

By Hyo-Seol Lee (Director of International Affairs of KADH)

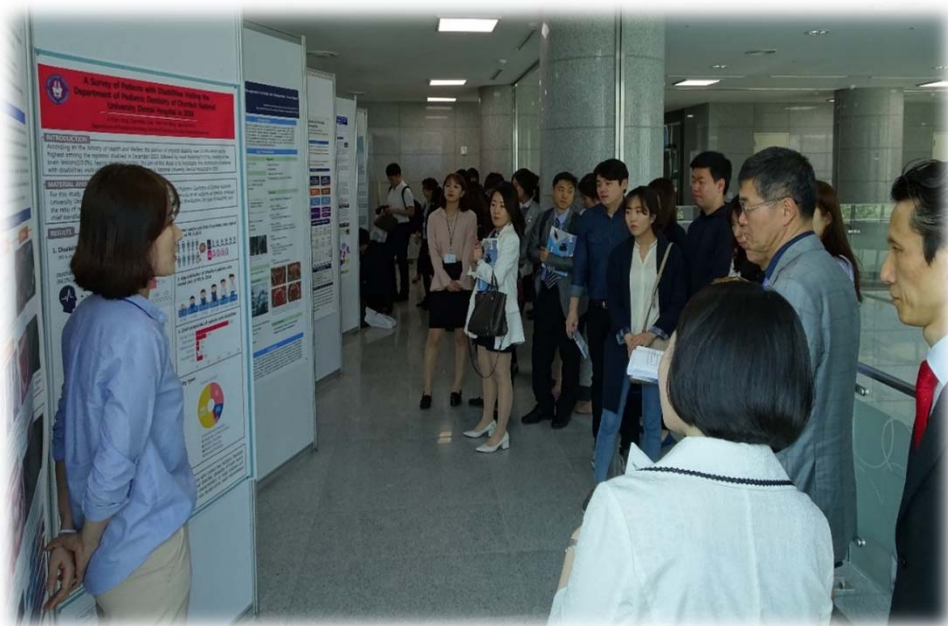

▲ Celebratory photography

On April 29, 2017, Korean Association for Disability and Oral Health (KADH)'s annual academic conference was held in Jeonju-si, Korea. Japanese Society for Disability and Oral Health (JSDH) and Taiwanese Association for Disability and Oral Health (TADOH) members and 130 dentists in Korea participated in the event.

This conference was consisted of a special lecture, a forum, an international symposium and poster presentation. The special lecture was “Swedish welfare system for the disabled: a review and proposal” by pf. Tae-sung Jeong (Pusan National University) and the forum was “Innovation in dental care services for persons with disabilities” by pf. Bo-Hyoung Jin, pf. So-Yun Kim, DH Hye-ran Paik, pf. Young J Kim (Seoul National University). In the international symposium, pf. Jung Keun Hyun (Dankook University), pf. Yoen-mi Yang (Chonbuk National University) and pf. Tadashi Ogasawara (Matsumoto Dental University) presented about “Considerations in caring for persons with physical disabilities”.

◀ Poster Presentation

And, Justin JC Lee (CDC Children Dental Hospital) was elected as the 7th President of KADH. Congratulations!!

▲ New President of KADH, Justin JC LEE